

ADOPTABLE PERMISSIONS

for the Adoptables of Dezy Delaceur

Hello, and thank you for supporting my little art shop! If you have purchased an Adoptable from me, you will have received access to five or more documents: A PDF titled Adoptable Permissions, a PDF profile of the character you have adopted, a PNG image of the character, PDFs of my Artwork Commission Contract and my Writing Commission Contract, a cute collectible PNG certificate with the name on it you used for your purchase, and – in some listings – other artwork and documents, which would be outlined in the listing you purchased the character from. The PDF titled Adoptable Permissions – the document you are reading right now – will explain what my Adoptables are and the terms and conditions of their use as a customer who has purchased an Adoptable. The two contracts (the Artwork Commission Contract and the Writing Commission Contract) contain terms and conditions which apply to all my artwork, writing, and concept design services. This is stated clearly on my Shop Policies page and is simply in place to protect my rights as the Artist and Writer for these characters. In the event that you lose access to these files, you can always find them on my Services page.

If you have any issues with your order or questions about the process of this exchange, please do not hesitate to contact me at dezydration@outlook.com. My office hours are Monday – Thursday, 10 AM – 6 PM CST, excluding US federal holidays and Wiccan sabbats. I try to respond to all communications within 24 office hours of receiving them, though responses may be slightly delayed during busier periods. Currently, this email is the best way to contact me, not social media.

About my Adoptables

Adoptables are fully fleshed out character concepts and designs. With purchase, you receive any artwork and writing which is outlined in the listing for the Adoptable as well as a collectible printable certificate exclusive to my Adoptables. The writing includes a full background biography on the character, and the artwork included is typically a rendered illustration and/or a character reference sheet. Pricing on Adoptables are flat rate, run at a generously discounted rate compared to custom commissioned pieces, and are delivered digitally only. Each Adoptable is limited exclusively to one purchase only – meaning that once it's sold, it's sold.

Once purchased, the Adoptable operates, more or less, as if you had commissioned me for it. You may use the character's design, concept, biography, and/or illustrations for personal use only as outlined in the next section titled 'Customer Usage Permissions'.

Customer Usage Permissions

My Rights: Under United States copyright law, copyright protections begin the moment a work is fixed in a tangible media of expression. This means that when a piece of visual artwork or writing is created visually – either by digital or physical medium – the artist who created the artwork has exclusive copyright for said piece. In possessing that exclusive copyright, the artist retains the sole and exclusive right to display, distribute, reproduce, and create derivative works based on that piece however they see fit.

I, as the Artist/Writer, will always retain these rights to the work I create unless otherwise discussed and put into a signed contract stating the contrary. Much – if not all – of the artwork that I create will be displayed on my website galleries and social media platforms at the moment I decide to display them and for as long as I decide to display them. Though, please note, that I will never use your personal IP for personal profit.

In the case of Adoptables, this means that the artwork and writing I create for my listings will be displayed publicly on my websites, on social media, or on any platform I may use in the sharing of my work. When sharing this work, I would love to mention you, your social media handle(s), or your project website in the description of the pieces in my galleries. You will have likely already provided this information upon adding the listing to your cart for checkout, but if you have any specific requests for this, please let me know. Likewise, if you wish to instead remain anonymous, I am also happy to make that happen upon request.

Your Rights: In purchasing an Adoptable from my shop, I grant you permission to display any of my artwork or writing and to create any derivative works including the character you've adopted under the condition that it is used for personal use only (i.e. social media avatars, non-profit social media posts, personal home décor, public non-profit fiction or derivative artwork, etc.) – that is, in any way that does not have the potential to benefit you financially. When sharing my artwork, please note that you are not permitted to alter my work in any way, including the removal of any signatures I may place on my work, but you may create derivative artwork of your own or have derivative artwork commissioned from other artists. Finally, when sharing my work publicly (artwork, writing, or concepts), it is greatly appreciated but not required that you credit me with my name (Dezy Delaceur or Dezydration) and a link to my website (Dezydration.com).

In addition, you are not permitted to resell my Adoptables under any circumstances. If you would like to rehome an Adoptable to someone else, please contact me, and I am happy to make a note on the transfer and even offer an updated collectible certificate to the new owner. It is just important to me that I know where my Adoptables are going so I can be sure all my terms are still agreed to by potential new owners.

Should you have any questions about these permissions, feel free to contact me.

On Commercial Licensing

In some cases (but not all), I am willing to offer a Commercial License for an Adoptable upon request. Please contact me via email regarding Commercial Licensing if this is something you are interested in. You can learn more about Commercial Licensing in the document titled Commercial Licensing Information available on my Services page.
